EJ Faina includes a digitally sculpted head and face morph, a highly detailed skin, and a custom morph of extra body features like the folds of the knee bones and elbows, neck, and others.

She has varied casual and fantasy makeup, nails (that look great with her custom sculpted long nail morph), and lip options, so even with the same character, you can depict her in very different ways, to look like very different women. You have 7 eye colors to choose, including one set of fantasy eyes with white irises. With them, you can adjust the eyes of the character to any female concept.

If you own the Anatomical Elements of Genesis 8 Female, EJ Faina includes two material presets for them, with or without body hair. If you don't, there is a custom morph that simulates them over Genesis 8 Female.
