STOP HERE & READ ME!

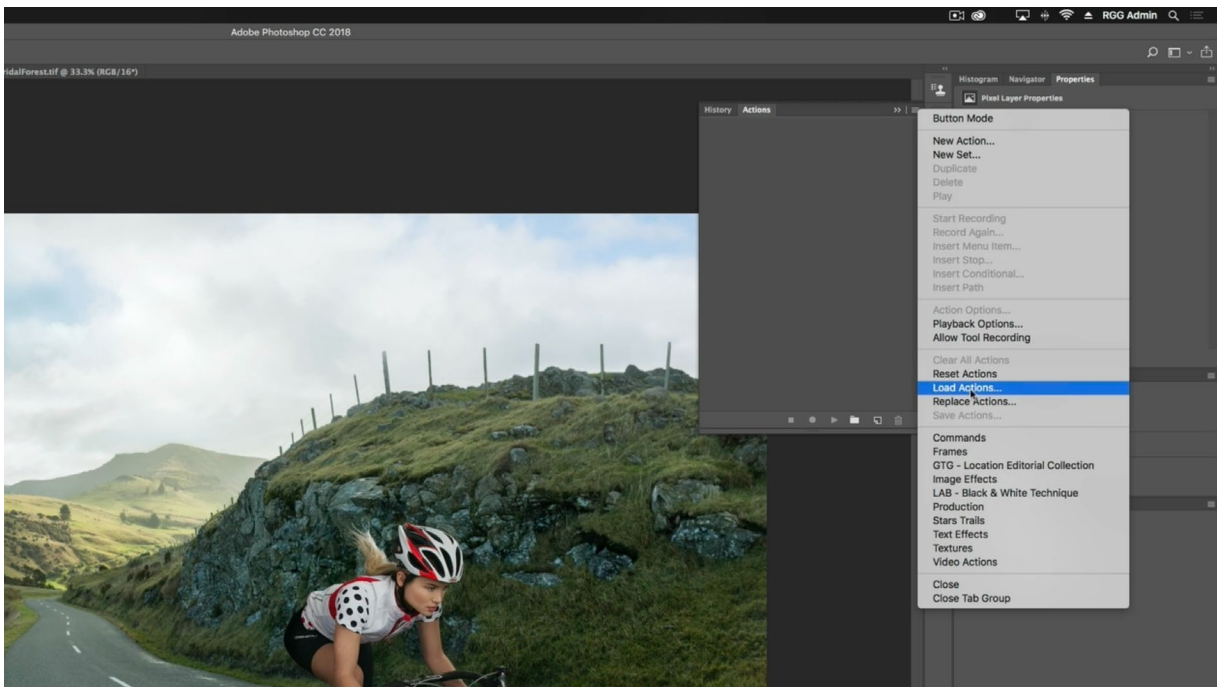

Installing your actions is a fairly simple process, but we have provided a quick walk-through for you to help you make sure your actions are installed correctly and you can use them as soon as you finished downloading them.

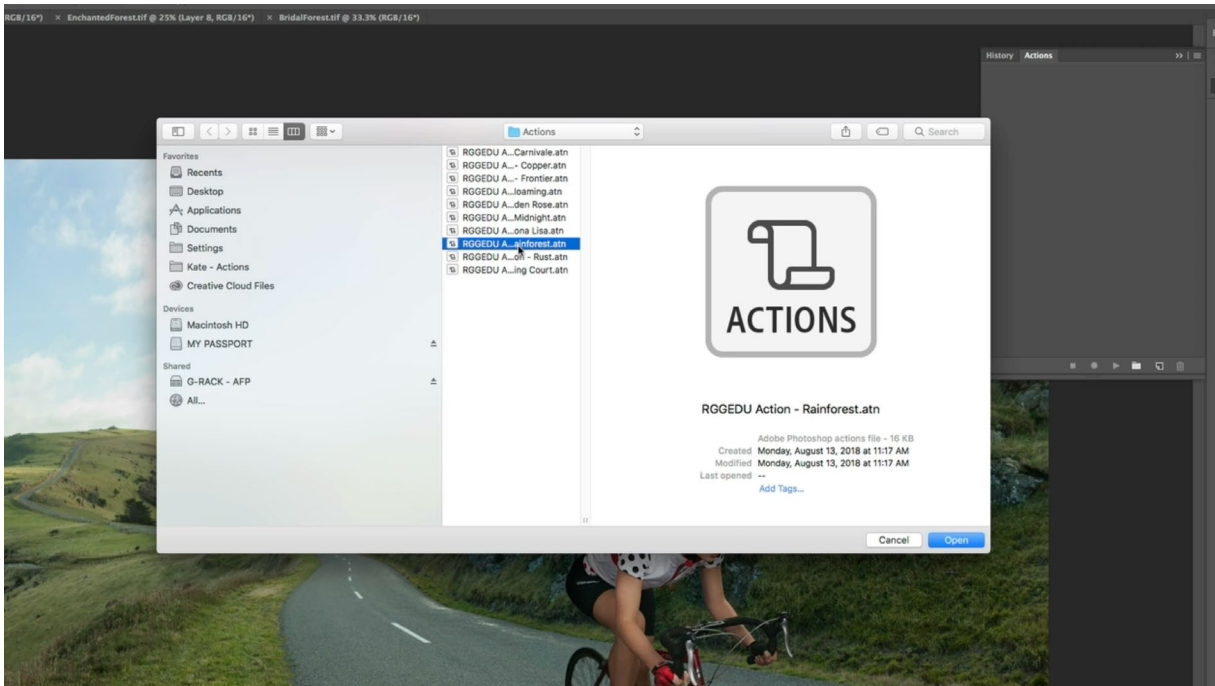

Once your actions are downloaded, open Photoshop and open one of the example images that was provided. Click on Window then navigate to the Actions button shown here to open up your actions panel.

When your actions panel opens it should look like the panel shown above and not have any loaded actions unless you have previously created/loaded an action in Photoshop before downloading these.

Next you will navigate to the options menu for your actions panel and go all the way down to click on Load Actions. This will open your computers file manager and prompt you to navigate to where the actions are located on your machine.

Once your file manager is opened navigate to your download folder (or wherever you placed your actions) and click on the one you want to open then simply click the open button to load your new action into Photoshop. Follow this process for any new or additional actions you have purchased. Now you're ready to go!

DIVE IN!

Adobe Photoshop Actions for Color are Kate Woodman's signature collection of color grading actions designed to automate and also enhance the creative color choices for photographer and retouchers. Photoshop actions give you ultimate control over each layer allowing you to fine tune every part of your image.

With this Master Collection we've combined all 10 Photoshop Actions for Color created by Kate Woodman. Compatible with Photoshop, the collection includes Rainforest, Rust, Carnivale, Midnight, Spring Court, Mona Lisa, Golden Rose, Copper, Frontier, and Gloaming. Created and used by Kate, these actions were designed for specific images while maintaining versatility to work on a wide variety of images and styles.
